

The two coincide to within 0.3%: with $|\text{corr}| \leq 0.06$ the four coefficients are determined essentially independently, so fixing the others buys almost nothing.